

Am I eligible to apply?

The applicant must be 18 or over, in good health with normal color vision. The LSMM caters for both UK and International students. Our course requires a good level of English.

What previous experience or qualifications are required?

No experience is required but art training or an interest in fashion, film, beauty make-up and hairdressing is beneficial.

What makes you course different to others?

We are the only make-up school that offers training that integrates all genres of make-up. The LSMM offers students the opportunity to learn in small groups (maximum 10 per class) so you can gain the individual tuition you deserve, maximizing your progress. All of our tutors are working at the highest level within their specialist fields. Training takes place in a working studio environment within Leyton Studios. All of our students are guaranteed trainee work experience as part of the Complete Make-up Diploma and Part-Time Complete Make-up Diploma and will have the opportunity to join our 'in-house' agency upon graduation.

What are the hours?

Classes run from 10:00am to 4:30pm, Monday to Friday. Students are advised to arrive at the studio at 9:45 to prepare for the day ahead and may need to be flexible with time should the class run over.

What products does the school use?

We use only the highest quality products in the school across all specialisms. We use a wide variety of brands including MAC, Bobbi Brown, NARS, YSL, Chanel, Estee Lauder, Maybelline, Revlon, Max Factors, bareMinerals, Topshop, ghd, Babyliss, Giorgio Armani, Bumble & Bumble, Givency, Lancome, Shu Uemura, Dior, Laura Mercier, Tom Ford, L'Oreal, DHC, Make-up International, Make Up For Ever, Gazelli, Garnier, Mouldlife, PPI Illustrator, Bluebird and Mist Air to name a few.

What is included in the fee?

The LSMM provides all the material you will need throughout the course, including your own working make-up kit and brushes.

What is included in the fee?

Complete Make-up Diploma: £7,500
Part-Time Complete Make-up Diploma: £9,000
Masterclasses: Between £400 and £1800
Weekend Short Course: £300

Can I visit the school and facilities?

We welcome visitors to the studio! Should you wish to schedule a visit us, simply call or email us and we will set-up an appointment to discuss your career options within the industry. You will also be able to meet and talk to our students.

How do I apply?

Fill in the application form for the course you would like to join. Application forms can be found in the Study section on our website. Applicants for the Complete Make-up Diploma, Part Time Complete Make-up Diploma and Masterclasses may be required to attend an interview with us. Overseas applicants can be interviewed by telephone or Skype. Upon acceptance you will receive a Letter of Acceptance and an invoice for a deposit payment of £1800 (non-refundable). The deposit payment secures your place for the course. The outstanding balance of the course fees will be invoiced and is payable no later than 30 days prior to the course start date.

If you wish to attend the Weekend Short Course an interview is not required. Upon receiving your application, you will be invoiced for the full amount of the course, £300 (non-refundable). The full payment secures your place in the course.

Can I get help with the fee?

On certain occasions we are able to offer a financial agreement between ourselves and a student, depending on credit checks, etc.

Will I be able to do the course if I don't have my own models?

Students practice on each other throughout the course but when appropriate can bring in their own models, especially on student project days (usually on Fridays). During portfolio building week students work on models that we source from leading modelling agencies.

What certificate will I receive at the end?

When you have satisfactorily completed our course, you will be awarded The LSMM Complete Make-up Diploma. This diploma is recognised throughout the industry. Upon completion of the Weekend Short Course, you will be awarded The LSMM Make-up Certificate.

